New on USModernist Radio: Michigan! That fine state shaped like your hand is a hotbed of amazing Modernism. Today George Smart and co-host Bob Langford chat with three knowledgeable guests about Michigan Modern. Michael Dow is the son of architect Alden Dow, who took a sharp left from the Dow family chemical business and became a world-class Modernist architect based in Midland Michigan. Susan Bandes is Professor of Art History and Director of Museum Studies at Michigan State University. Brian Conway is co-author of Michigan Modern: Design That Shaped America and won the 2016 Advocacy Award from Docomomo-US. Dropping by the studio, the Mac McLaughlin Group: Mac McLaughlin, Mike Randall, Peter Joyner, and Kevin Golden.

Is your business (food, art, architecture, construction, furniture, fixtures) looking for customers who love good design? Up to 200 people attend our monthly design parties. The next one could be at your office or studio - or at a client location showing off your work. Email Rebekah Laney, rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

New book coming out November 13: Santiago Calatrava: Drawing Building Reflecting, by Santiago Calatrava and Cristina Carrillo de

Albornoz. Calatrava first made a name for himself in the late 1980s and went on to create a series of highly innovative, iconic bridges across Europe, large-scale projects as the City of Arts and Sciences in his birth town, Valencia; the Museum of Tomorrow in Rio de Janeiro; and the World Transportation Hub at Ground Zero in New York.

New book: Essential Modernism by Dominic Bradbury, with dozens of Modernist designers, from International Style to 1940s Modernism. International architects and designers such as Alvar Aalto, Marcel Breuer, Eileen Gray, Le Corbusier, Mies van der Rohe, and Frank Lloyd Wright revolutionized the built world and how we live in it. Complete with essays by accomplished scholars and subject specialists, including NCSU's Margret Kentgens-Craig.
